

WHO WE ARE

With over 50 years in the textile industry, CASW is a leading spinning mill in Central America, supplying high quality and sustainable yarns and fabrics to major apparel manufacturers. With a state of the art manufacturing facilities, pioneering processes and product trends, CASW is committed to a sustainable future which has earned the company recognition from multiple partners and retailers.

With our two lean facilities in El Salvador and Honduras, we can meet any demand

